Practical Information:

Project Description:

The project is aimed for especially young generally all people and the main theme is “Determining the prejudices that both the participants and community have and what have happened until now.” In this way, participants will get awareness and try to correct them.

During the project, some activities will be as continuing meeting with local authority, free workshops, conversation, visit to mosque and questions-answers session with Imam, discussion, sharing the ideas, presentations, sketch, drama, cultural visits, questions-answers, preparing posters and slogans, creative activities, roundtable discussions, empathy work-shop, watching films, creating short films and project magazine and so on.

Our project will give young people opportunities to express their opinions, to undertake non-formal study of intriguing subjects, to make debate groups and express their opinions in creative ways. After practical workshops which introduce them negative aspects of discrimination and how to get rid of prejudices, they will work in mixed groups and they will be organizing the works: dividing tasks and roles, deciding the subject of their movies, writing narrative, conducting interviews and creating together a final short movie.

Participating Countries:

There are 5 participating organizations from:
